Incompletes at Goucher College are given only for reasons beyond the student's control. In all instances, the student must initiate application for an incomplete with the instructor, and except in the case of a last minute crisis or illness, a student must make application no later than the end of the twelfth week of the semester. Incompletes are intended to apply to cases where approximately three-quarters of the work of the semester can be completed by the end of the semester. If the work to be done involves more than one-fourth of the course, and the reasons for the students's failure to complete the work are legitimate, the instructor may recommend to the associate dean that the student be permitted to withdraw from the course. When the parties fail to agree, the case may be referred to the academic dean.

- Medical Reasons
The student may be required to substantiate with a statement from the director of student health and counseling or a treating physician.
- Other Crisis
For example, the death of a parent.
- Academic Reasons
Factors within the course which have caused an unavoidable delay and would have posed an insurmountable difficulty for a person taking the course regardless of ability or previous preparation. This category of complete is not to be used merely to allow the student time to do a more thorough job.
