Some classes with different start times are scheduled in the same exam period, (i.e. M between 4:00 pm and 7:30 pm start times). This is caused by classes starting at times other than the regular class times. Classes with irregular class start times are the most likely to create student exam conflicts. A student with an exam conflict will be alerted, and must contact the instructors of the exams to plan an alternate time to take one of the conflicting exams. Instructors are asked to accommodate these requests.
