Definition of Non-Matriculating Student

Admission as a non-matriculating student is granted to qualified candidates who wish to complete a few select courses in either the M.Ed. or M.A.T. Program. Students in this category are not eligible for the degree status. Up to 12 credits may be taken as a non-matriculating student. After 12 credits, the student would be required to complete all admission requirements for the degree candidate.

To be considered for admission as a non-matriculating student, an applicant must submit the following:

1. A completed, signed non-matriculating application/registration form
2. Unofficial transcript of undergraduate or graduate course work OR copy of teacher certification
