

This summer, get your kid off the couch and into action with a week (or two) of fun at Time Out! Recreational Sports Camp on the beautiful, wooded campus of Goucher College.

Volleyball, basketball, soccer, swimming, and more—a wide variety of recreational activities allows each camper to explore new interests and discover new strengths without getting bored.

Boys and girls ages 6 through 12 will be grouped according to age and ability, and our experienced staff will give them the low-key, personal attention they need to learn and grow. No boring drills. No special skills. And everybody plays!
