Students interested in hosting an overnight guest in their on campus residence must register their guest(s) with the Office of Public Safety. Guests must present a government issued ID, name of host, host room, and visit start and end dates. They will receive a guest pass that they are required to keep on their person for the duration of their visit. Guests must present their pass upon request by Goucher Staff and RAs, to access the SRC, or to gain admittance to on-campus events (that are not open to the public).

- Hosts must escort their guest at any time the guest is in the residence halls
- Visitation must not interfere with other students' sleep or study
- All residents of the room/apartment must approve overnight guests
- Guests may stay a maximum of three consecutive nights
- Unregistered guests will be required to leave campus immediately

Please review the Social Host Policy and sign below, acknowledging your review and understanding of guest policies, and intent to adhere to the Student Code of Conduct and all other Goucher policies:

It is the responsibility of any student who hosts a visitor or guest (including another Goucher student) on Goucher-owned or -leased property to ensure that the visitor or guest knows and adheres to the Goucher Student Code of Conduct. In instances where visitors or guests violate the Code of Conduct while on Goucher-owned or leased property, or while a guest of the student at a Goucher-sponsored activity off-campus, the host will be held responsible. Responsibility under these rules may occur even if the host is not a participant in the activity or has left the visitor(s) alone.
