Topics include Governor Hogan's approval ratings, immigration, and the 2018 Maryland Democratic gubernatorial primary.

Baltimore – The Goucher Poll, which surveys Maryland residents and voters, will release the results from its most recent poll on September 21, 25, and 26 at 12:01 a.m. on each day. Results by registered voter status and other key demographics will be included.

Thursday, September 21 (12:01am): Opinions toward immigration and Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program (DACA); climate change and hurricane preparedness; wind turbines in Ocean City; and race and society.

Monday, September 25 (12:01am): Ratings of Maryland Governor Larry Hogan, President Donald Trump, and the United States Congress; most important issue facing Maryland and direction of the state; perceptions of Governor Hogan's ideology, whether he represents the future of the Republican Party, and perceptions of his distance from President Trump; and the most important issue in deciding the vote for governor in 2018 and Governor Hogan's reelection chances.

Tuesday, September 26 (12:01am): Democratic gubernatorial primary (candidate preferences of Maryland Democratic likely voters).

Mileah Kromer, the director of the Sarah T. Hughes Field Politics Center, will be available for comment. She can be reached directly at mileah.kromer@goucher.edu.

About the Goucher Poll

The Goucher Poll is conducted under the auspices of the Sarah T. Hughes Field Politics Center at Goucher College. Directed by Mileah Kromer, the Goucher Poll conducts surveys on public policy, economic, and social issues in Maryland. Goucher College supports the Goucher Poll as part of its mission to instill in its students a sense of community where discourse is valued and practiced. The Goucher Poll is fully funded by the Sarah T. Hughes Field Politics Center endowment and does not take additional funding from outside sources. The Goucher Poll seeks to improve public discourse in the state by providing neutral, nonbiased, and independent information on citizen perceptions and opinions. The data collected by the Goucher Poll are used to support faculty and student research. The Sarah T. Hughes Field Politics Center is a member of the Association of Academic Survey Research Organizations and the American Association for Public Opinion Research Transparency Initiative.
