Charter and Bylaws for the Goucher College Administrative Employees Association (AEA)

Preamble

Goucher College is best served when it uses the resources and expertise of all its community members equally. The college thrives when administrators, faculty, and staff work together as a cohesive group of partners, supported by the collective knowledge, experience, and education of all community members. Administrative employees play an irreplaceable role in the development of every Goucher student, the support of faculty and administrators, and the realization of the college’s overall mission.
