

Creative Writing Shadow Day

---

Schedule for February 17-18

Sunday, February 17

- |        |                                                                                           |                          |
|--------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 5 p.m. | RegistrationMeet the Goucher Ambassador who will serve as your overnight host. | Admissions Office |
| 6 p.m. | DinnerEnjoy dinner and conversation with students majoring in psychology.      |                          |

The remainder of the evening will be spent with your Goucher Ambassador host.

Please note: Parents are invited to attend a separate dinner with faculty beginning at 5:30 p.m.

Monday, February 18

- |                   |                                                                                                                                                                              |                          |
|-------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 8 a.m.            | Meet Your HostMeet the Goucher student who you will be shadowing and drop off your belongings.                                                                    | Admissions Office |
| 8:15 a.m.-12 noon | Experience Life as a Goucher StudentSpend the morning exploring a typical day of classes at Goucher. You'll have breakfast, attend classes, and speak to faculty. |                          |
| 12-1 p.m.         | LunchHave lunch with faculty and students to conclude your visit.                                                                                                 |                          |

Please note: Parents are welcome to attend a general information session led by a member of the admissions staff at 10:00 a.m. in the Admissions Office and are invited to join their student for lunch at 12:00 p.m.