Please note that VA Educational benefits for study abroad are subject to approval by the VA’s designated State Approving Agency (SAA), the Maryland Higher Education Commission (MHEC). For this reason, it is best to submit your request by no later than 90 days before your study abroad begins.

In most cases, Goucher semester programs where a student is billed by Goucher as if they were attending here are eligible for VA educational benefits. Please note the following specific VA restrictions: VA would pay no charges directly to the host school; VA cannot pay airfare; VA cannot pay amenities fees or host school fees.

Student, please complete this form and submit with any and all supporting documentation for your study abroad program, including (if available): description of the study abroad program; itemized cost/rate sheet for the program; schedule of courses; any applicable paperwork completed with Goucher’s Office of International Studies (OIS).
