Families may experience circumstances that warrant basing their financial aid eligibility on more recent 2021 or projected 2022 income information, rather than the federally required 2020 “Prior-Prior Year” income information. This is usually due to a significant recent family event in 2021 or 2022, such as the loss of a job, loss of untaxed income or benefits, one-time increase of income, death of parent/spouse, or other extraordinary unusual expenses.

If you feel that you have extenuating circumstances not addressed on your 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), you may complete this form and submit the required documentation to request a reevaluation of your financial aid eligibility. Appeal requests, if approved, are granted on a one-time, case-by-case basis.

Situations that WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED:

- Voluntary private secondary tuition
- Car payments/insurance
- Personal bankruptcy
- Reduction of business income
- Loss of home equity
- Consumer debt

Instructions:

- Confirm that Goucher has received a 2022-2023 FAFSA, including any required documents.
 - Current students can confirm this on the “Documents” screen in Net Partner.
 - New students who have not yet deposited should check their Admissions & Financial Aid Status Portal (<https://apply.goucher.edu/account>) to view their Financial Aid Checklist.
- Review pages 2 & 3, and indicate the situation for which you are requesting a professional judgment review.
- On page 3, type a clear and brief explanation of your situation and sign the Statement of Understanding. (You may attach a supplemental document if additional space is needed, but please keep your explanation limited to a single page or less.)
- You must also submit a 2022-2023 Verification Form, available on our web page. (Undergraduate students who provide parent information should submit the Dependent verification form.)
- Submit this completed appeal request and all required documents to the Office of Student Financial Aid. Please make only one submission, and submit this form with all documents as a single package.

Response and Turnaround Time:

Allow at least 4 weeks for a response once all needed documentation is submitted. The student and parent will be informed of the decision by e-mail to the e-mail addresses indicated above. Continuing students won’t hear of a decision until after notifications for the 21-22 award year go out (mid-June).

CHECK THE BOX BELOW THAT BEST DESCRIBES YOUR SITUATION
