

CLASS OF 2018

Goucher experiences change lives:

97% of graduating seniors reported that their study abroad experience greatly changed their world view

100%
STUDY ABROAD

96% felt their worldviews were changed by interacting with other Goucher students

Goucher cares about its students:

felt that their professors cared about them as people had at least one Goucher professor that excited them about learning cited relationships with faculty positively affecting their lives

Goucher students are engaged:

96% of graduating seniors took advantage of time outside of class to engage in discussions about coursework with their fellow students

Goucher graduates are prepared for success:

96%

of graduates were employed and/or pursuing graduate education within 1 year of graduation

86% percent of graduates were employed within one year and

33% of graduates were enrolled in graduate school within one year

90% felt that Goucher prepared them for their first job

90% of respondents found their first jobs within six months of graduation

Goucher's top majors by number of graduates:

Goucher students are employed by organizations such as:

- American Association for the Advancement of Science
- Americorps
- Baltimore Museum of Art
- Bank of America Merrill Lynch in Dublin, Ireland
- Bureau of Economic Analysis
- Clean Water Action
- Embassy of Qatar
- Google
- Johns Hopkins Sidney Kimmel Cancer Center
- Microsoft
- NBCUniversal Media, LLC
- Peace Corps
- Stanley Black & Decker
- The Florida Ballet
- U.S. House of Representatives
- Universal Studios Hollywood

They attend graduate schools such as:

- American University Washington College of Law
- Brown University
- Columbia University
- Cornell Law School
- Harvard University
- Johns Hopkins University
- New York University
- University of Arizona, College of Medicine, Phoenix