

BALLOTS, BABIES, and BANNERS OF PEACE: AMERICAN JEWISH WOMEN'S ACTIVISM, 1890-1940

A talk by

MELISSA R. KLAPPER '95

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 2 ▪ 7 P.M.
BATZA ROOM, THE ATHENAEUM

Melissa Klapper, professor of history and director of women's and gender studies at Rowan University, will discuss her most recent book, which focuses on the role of Jewish women in birth control, suffrage, and peace movements in the United States. Light refreshments will be served after the lecture, and books will be available for sale and signing.

This event is free and open to the public, but tickets must be reserved at www.goucher.edu/tickets or by calling 410-337-6333.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Goucher College Library; the Peace Studies Program; the Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Department; the History Department; and Goucher Hillel

GOUCHER | college

