

“But if we do not treasure the artifacts, if we do not ask the questions, and if we do not study and wonder about the lives of those who owned, posed for, wrote, wore, ate with, or played with these remnants, we will find no answers at all.”

THE ARTIFACTS DRAWINGS

FEATURING THE ARTWORK OF NANCY PATZ

SEPTEMBER 14-DECEMBER 5, 2014

THE SARA SIEBERT CENTER, GOUCHER COLLEGE LIBRARY

This exhibit features two panels of evocative drawings of artifacts from international Holocaust museums by Baltimore-born, Goucher-educated artist and author Nancy Patz. The artwork is available for viewing in the Sanford J. Ungar Athenaeum from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m., daily, Sunday, September 14, to Friday, December 5.

For more information on the exhibit and coinciding lesson plans, visit goucher.edu/theartifactsdrawings.

The Artifacts Drawings is presented by the Friends of the Goucher College Library with generous support from: Azrieli Graduate School of Jewish Education & Administration at Yeshiva University, the Elizabeth B. and David Allan Robertson Fund, Goucher College Department of Education, Goucher Hillel, Goucher College Office of Spiritual & Religious Life, Goucher College Peace Studies Program, the Nancy Patz Corner Fund, and the Sara Siebert Library Fund.
