

Online Attendance Reporting – Instructions

1. Log into MyGoucher and click on the tab, “myGoucher Links”.
2. Click on the Submit Attendance Reports link.

You can also go directly to the Online Attendance Reporting site by going directly to:

<http://ranger.goucher.edu/attendance/ClassList.aspx>

3. That link will open a new window with a list of courses for which you are assigned as an instructor. In courses with multiple instructors any of the instructors can submit the attendance report. Only one report per reporting period is required.

Student Attendance Tracking

Year/term: Fall 2009

Select the roster you would like to open by clicking on the 'View' link.

	Class	Title
View	CS 325*001	Top:Dtbse Trans Sys

- Click on the word 'View' next to the course number. This will open the attendance roster for that course.

The active reporting period will be highlighted in yellow. Past or future reporting periods will appear in gray.

- For the active reporting period, click on the check box next to the student's information to indicate that they are/have been attending. If there is a comment you'd like the Registrar to see, please enter it in the comments box for the reporting period.

If a student has not been attending, do not click on the check box next to the student's information.

If the student has usually been attending, but is absent on the day you complete the attendance report, mark the student as attending. You can type a note, "absent today", or other explanatory note in the comments box.

If a student has been attending, but is not on the roster, enter their name in the text boxes below the class roster.
